Beloved Children:

As the chela dwells upon these words, while he reads, his consciousness and Mine join, and for even a short span our individual realms of thought and feeling make for an easier meeting and a submergence of the separate selves in the progressive march towards Oneness.

So very few of those walking Earth's pathway today really think at all! They are hypnotized by the outer illusive picture and, even fearing to be alone with any fluttering thought that might reach the surface of a turbulent mind, insist uppn the blaring of much speaking, of radio, of television or the reading of the effluvia of foolish and even evil minds as printed in emotion-stirring periodicals.

Oneness with you, My faithful chelas, is My great desire. This can come only as you think upon Me. Your desire for Oneness with Me and identification with Me might be likened unto the light of a telephone switchboard - be assured I see your Light at all times and swiftly respond. Still the fluttering waves of the mind to the smooth surface of a quiet lake; then in the calm of such meditation I shall hear you and you shall hear Me.

Each time We thus come, by these humble weekly letters of Mine, to join our consciousness for even a short span, our individual thoughts and feelings make for a common unity and an easier submergence of the separate selves in the constant climb towards Oneness.

Again I say, be not disturbed by the outer clanging of alarms, set your vehicles to a vibration similar to My Own and become accustomed to the peaceful vibratory action of My mental and feeling world, which will set into pulsation the radiation of My consciousness, and which will transcend time and space and bring us both into the Oneness of the Eternal NOW.

Accept My Cloak of Protective Blessing and Love in which I enfold each one of My children today.

Love and Blessings
MAHA CHOHAN
